Since 2015. until now I'm endorsed into a few personal projects and I'm working as a freelancer, I started on elance.com site and now I'm at upwork.com - where I have proven myself as top rated freelancer, a top-notch expert who solve wide range of customer problems:

Since September 2017. I am working at GoDaddy as a member of WordPress Premium Support, I went from WordPress Premium Support Expert Level I to Level III position in less than 2 years. After that, I was promoted to level III, and not so long after that I was promoted to Technical Team Leader position, I am proud on that fact, because I give 100% of myself into my work, I constantly make progress and GoDaddy recognized that.
